MEET THE CAST

CHRISTOPHER ROBIN (ROBERT QUETTI) An 8th grader at ADM, Rob made his stage debut as Piglet in SLT's '90 production of "Winnie-the-Pooh." He also appeared as an orphan in "Oliver."

WINNIE-THE-POOH (RYAN FLAHERTY) Ryan recreates the role of Pooh for SLT audiences in this production. His stage credits include "Canterbury Tales," "Cheaper by the Dozen," "How to Eat Like a Child," "Our Town" and "Oliver." A 7th grader at ADM, Ryan enjoys swimming and hanging out with his friends.

PIGLET (COLIN JONES) A 6th grader at ADM, Colin's impressive resume' includes the lead role in "Oliver." He has also appeared in "Canterbury Tales," "Cheaper by the Dozen," "How to Eat Like a Child" and Roo in "Winnie-the Pooh."

OWL (ELIZABETH INGRAM) Elizabeth makes her stage debut as Owl and says that she shares one important quality with her character, they're both smart. A 6th grader at ADM, she plays the viola.

EYORE (NSE EKPO) Nse finds playing an animal more difficult than playing a human but enjoys the challenge. Unlike Eeyore, Nse says that he is an optimist not a pessimist. He is a 7th grader at Bates.

TIGGER (GABE ANDERSON) Gabe says that he is like Tigger in that he's very hyper. A 4th grader at WH, whose hobbies include acting, swimming and golf, Gabe hopes that he'll be able to do more plays at SLT.

KANGA (JENNY ABBOTT) An 8th grader at ADM who enjoys playing the clarinet and singing, Jenny says that she likes her character because it gives her a chance to be bossy.

ROO (KATHERINE ABBOTT) Katherine made her SLT debut in "Oliver." A 6th grader at ADM, she enjoys playing the French horn and admits that playing an animal is challenging but very enjoyable.

RABBIT (SARAH HAYES) Sarah's stage credits include "Oliver," "How to Eat Like a Child" and "Our Town." This busy ADM 8th grader enjoys horseback riding, reading and volunteering at the hospital.

EARLY (MISSY MOULTON) A 4th grader at WH, "The House at Pooh Corner" is Missy's first play. She enjoys horseback riding and playing the piano.

LATE (CHARLOTTE GILCHRIST) Charlotte says that playing an animal is easy, it's staying in character that's difficult. A 3rd grader at ADE, she enjoys playing baseball. This is Charlotte's first play.
